

SRI VENKATESWARA UNIVERSITY :: TIRUPATI

DECLARATION

I, the Registrar, Sri Venkateswara University do hereby solemnly affirms that Sri Venkateswara University college of Arts & Sciences was established in 1954, in Tirupati to cater the educational needs and aspirations of people of the Rayalaseema Region of Andhra Pradesh. After completing 68 years of excellence in teaching, research, extension and outreach activities, the University is committed to cater the needs of higher education offering a full range of post-graduate programs in Arts, Sciences, Law, Management, Education, Physical Education, Engineering and Pharmacy disciplines. From a humble beginning of one College with six departments, later the University has established several departments from time to time and altogether 60 to 10 batches of students were passed out after completion of their courses through conventional mode (Regular departments).

Moreover, the Centre for Distance and Online Education (erstwhile Directorate of Distance Education), Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati, also offered programmes from 1972 and subsequently increased the programmes in distance mode derived from regular departments after successful pass out of atleast five batches in conventional department.
